Island park, winning in eleven innings from the Stogles. It should have been a win for the local team in nine innings, but in the ninth, with two Toledo batsmen out, Cote muffed a foul fly off Cates' bat, giving the latter an oppor-tunity to hit out, which he did to the extent of three bases, scoring Ewing, and then a hit brought the hard-hitting pitcher home with the tieing run. The visitors then won out in the eleventh, ther side having scored in the tenth. but only through more luck than the the banks of the Maumee. With Gilks an out to Dobbs, and Ewing retired, from Leahy to Cote, Arthur hit out for a base. Cates again distinguished himself, hitting safe to center field. Dobbs made a quick return of the ball to Leaby, who threw to Niles for what should have been an easy out that would have left the game a tie, but the throw was bad, the ball striking Ewing the back and rolling off toward the grand stand, and allowing Ewing to core the winning run. It was a very

Cates and Parvin were the opposing twirlers, and both were effective, but most of the hits off Parvin were made after chances had been given to retire the opposing side. Parvin distinguished nself by striking out four times, but finally in the eleventh he hit down to second for an out. The crowd had fun with itself by cheering wildly over the mexpected skill "Bones" displayed

The game was notable for some very fast fielding,—and for some that wasn't fast. In the second inning, Cote hit a cannon-shot liner straight at Cates that looked as safe as Ohio is for Nash this fall, but Cates had his nerve, stuck out his gloved hand and made what was really a remarkable stop. In the ninth Gilks hit a fast one over Parvin that had all the earmarks of a base hit, but Leahy's wonderful stop and snap throw to Cole retired "Bob."

Wheeling got three runs in the third by the grace of Smith and Gliks. With wo out, Niles hit to Smith, who unexpectedly dropped the ball after a nice run for it, giving Niles two bases. Cates undertook to show Donahue how close he could throw to the top of his head, and very accommodatingly knocked off his cap, and "Donnle" alked. Then Lyons hit one to deep center which Gilks got under, but nuffed, and two runs came in. Lytia singled, and by fast running and a beautiful feet first slide Lyons scored in the third, the visitors got one on Ewing's base on balls, Arthur's single, Cates' sacrifice and Leahy's error, which gave Hartman's life. Another

In the sixth Lytic scored on his two-bagger and Leahy's infield hit, on which Griffin fell down. With one out, Cote hit in the air to Gilks. Leahy stend, thinking two were already out, he ran for home, and a double play retiring the side resulted. It was very yellow work, indeed, and probably lost the game to Wheeling.

The visitors tied in the ninth. With Gilks an out. Ewing hit for a base. Arthur was an easy out, and the fans felt better, and when Cates popped up a little fly back of first, which Cote got inder, everybody raised in his seat to leave, but Cote dropped the ball, and ther Cates batted out a three bagger to right center, scoring Ewing, and Griffin's two-bagger scored Cates with Nather side scored in the tenth, and as related above Toledo won in the eleventh. BASE BALL COMMENT.

This afternoon the Toledon, make their last appearance on the Island grounds in a "grand double-header," as the announcer puts it, the first game beginning at 2 o'clock sharp. Wheeling wants two out of three from the leaders, and Wells and Poole are expected to turn the trick for the Stogies, while Wiltin and either berguson or Ewing will pitch for the visitors.

New Castle lost the opening runs of he Fort Wayne series yesterday, and an no longer be counted the bright ennant possibility she has been touted

At last Youngstown wins a game-rom Springfield, which is a sort of ighteen-legged foot ball for the other nter-state teams to lick all over the ot. It's retribution, Mr. Torreyson.

Every Inter-state game yesterday was won on the most slender of mar-gins-one run.

If Ewing hadn't got in the way of that throw from Leahy to Niles—
If Parvin hadn't given that one base on balls, which was so costly—
In fact, gentlemen, if any one of these unfortunate things hadn't happened the Toledos wouldn't be leading in the Inter-state race this morning.

"Billy Clingman turned a neat trick in that last game at Louisville Sun-day," says Ducky Holmes. "Demont had litt the ball to the club house, and which gave Hariman a life. Another came in the fourth on Smith's two-bagger, Myers' out and Gilks' single.

In the sixth Lytle scored on his two-bagger and Leahy's infield hit, on which Griffin fell down. With one out, Cote hit in the air to Gilks. Leahy should have stayed at second, but inshould have stayed at second, but inshould have stayed at second, but in Tribure.
